

Indian Arts and Crafts Association Volunteer Information

Thank you so much for expressing your interest in becoming an IACA Volunteer. The success of IACA has been built around a team of volunteers, like yourself. As a volunteer you will become part of a team that will provide you with unique insights into the business of collecting and selling authentic American Indian art. You will have the ability to express your ideas and your creativity that will have a direct impact on the Indian art market, and on your IACA association in the future. Please complete this short information sketch and send it to us at:
